

www.njaa.org

Located in Voorhees State Park
just north of Clinton, NJ
Hunterdon County

GPS Address
Observatory Road
Glen Gardner, NJ

One hour from NYC
35 minutes from Easton, PA

Largest public telescope in New Jersey
4 Observatories on site

Public Visiting Hours

Open to the public, no reservations or fees required however donations always appreciated. (Please contact us for groups of 10 or more).

Saturday night stargazing 8:30-10:30pm
Sunday afternoon solar viewing 2:00-5:00pm
June 1st thru October 31st.

Astronomy talks every 4th Saturday evening at 8:30pm, March thru October.

NJAA is a 501c3 Non-Profit Organization

Our MISSION is to “Educate the Public about the Science of Astronomy”.

Special Interest Groups

Astrophotography - meets first Friday's Radio Astronomy - meets second Friday's Planetary Imaging
Spectroscopy Research
UAP Forum meetings
Amateur Radio Club NJ2AA

Educational Courses

Astronomy 101 Courses
Young Astronomer Course for ages 7 – 13

Resources

NJAA YouTube Channel
4 Dedicated Observatories
Solar System Walk
Real Time All Sky Night Camera
Real Time Weather Station's
Real Time Lighting Detector Station
Real Time SQM Sky Quality Meter
Member Loaner Scope Program
Member Astrophotography Exhibit
Astronomy Mentors
Member Only Nights

